INSTITUTO DE IDIOMAS UNIVERSIDAD PRIVADA DE TACNA

WORKBOOK - UNIT 9

Curso: Ingles Intermediate 3

Docente: Mighael Dante Huanca

Pacci

Estudiante: Andy Michael Calizaya Ladera

Tacna – Perú

2026

09 What would you have done?

VOCABULARY

1 Describe the people in the pictures. Use the words in the box.

embarrassed grateful rude inconsiderate helpful thoughtful relieved irritated

1. The man was grateful that the woman was helpful and picked up his groceries.

2. The man was relieved that his thoughtful neighbor brought him soup.

3. The daughter was embarrassed because her mother was rude in the restaurant.

4. The man was irritated by the inconsiderate shoppers.

2 Choose the correct word.

1. That man was rude / sympathetic to take the last seat on the bus. My grandmother had to stand for the whole ride.
2. Wasn't it uncomfortable / thoughtful of Mia to send me a birthday card?
3. I'm so shocked / relieved that my neighbor is watching my cat while I'm on vacation.
4. Dan was confused / hurt when his watch stopped working. He didn't know what time it was.

3 OVER TO YOU Complete the sentences. Use your own ideas.

1. I am always amused when I watch funny videos of cats.
2. My friend felt hurt when nobody remembered his birthday party
3. My parents were relieved when I called them to say I had arrived home safely.

LANGUAGE PRACTICE

1 Write the words in the correct order to make sentences.

1. would / left / not / I / have / on / my phone / .
   I would not have left my phone on.
2. have / should / so much money / Donna / not / spent / .
   Donna should not have spent so much money.
3. shouldn't / forgotten / we / a gift / have / to buy / .
   We shouldn't have forgotten to buy a gift.
4. done / you / what / have / would / ?
   What would you have done?

2 Complete the conversations. Use should have or would have and the past participle of the verbs in parentheses.

1. A I was so irritated. A woman behind me talked during the whole movie.
   B I would have asked (ask) her to be quiet.
2. A I was very embarrassed when I had to leave the restaurant to get my wallet.
   B Why didn't your friends help you? They should have offered (offer) to pay.
3. A I forgot about my best friend's birthday, and she was really hurt.
   B You should have written (write) it on your calendar.
4. A My boss interviewed someone today who had a price tag stuck on her shirt.
   B Why didn't anyone tell her? She would have been (be) grateful.
5. A My neighbor's party was really noisy last night. What would you have done?
   B I wouldn't have said (not say) anything. A party every now and then isn't so bad.
6. A When he came in soaking wet, I was so amused I just had to laugh.
   B You shouldn't have done (not do) that. I'm sure he was already really embarrassed.

3 Correct the sentences.

1. I should have ~~send~~ flowers. ✗ I should have sent flowers.
2. What ~~I should~~ have done? ✗ What should I have done?
3. He should not have ~~talk~~ so loudly. ✗ He should not have talked so loudly.
4. We should ~~have not~~ said that. ✗ We should not have said that.
5. Should ~~have I~~ told her? ✗ Should I have told her?
6. I ~~should not~~ complained so much. ✗ I should not have complained so much.

4 Complete the conversation. Use would have or should have and the past participle of the verbs in the box.

bring do do ask eat

Jan What's wrong, Alma? You look irritated.

Alma Well, my best friend got married last night, and she had a formal party. A few of her guests did some things I don't think they [1] should have done

Jan Like what?

Alma First, I was shocked that they didn't bring a gift.

Jan Oh, no! That's awkward. They [2] should have brought a gift.

Alma I thought so, too. Next, they finished all the food. Even the cake!

Jan Maybe they were really hungry. But I guess they [3] would have eaten less food. That's what I would have done.

Alma Yes. And finally, when the party was over, they took the flowers home with them! My friend didn't know what to do. What [4] would you have done?

Jan Right away, I [5] would have asked them if they wanted to take some candles home, too!

Alma Oh, Jan! You're too generous!

5 What do you think? What should these people not have done? Write sentences with shouldn't have.

1. Hannah started eating before everyone was served.
   Hannah shouldn't have started eating before everyone was served.

2. James ate all his food in five minutes.
   James shouldn't have eaten all his food in five minutes

3. Paul left a lot of extra food on his plate.
   Paul shouldn't have left a lot of extra food on his plate

4. Amanda told the host how to cook better.
   Amanda shouldn't have told the host how to cook better.

LISTENING

GO ONLINE Go to smartchoice4e.oxfordonlinepractice.com. Download the audio for Unit 9.

1 Listen to the conversation. Choose (✓) the correct answer.

1. Claire and Ellie are ...
   - ✓ at work.
   - ☐ on vacation.
2. Ellie is embarrassed about ...
   - ✓ cooking her fish too long.
   - ☐ staying too long in the IT office.
3. Claire would have ...
   - ✓ made a joke.
   - ☐ made the same mistake.

2 Listen again. Choose the correct answer.

1. Ellie should / shouldn't have paid more attention to her fish in the microwave.
2. Ellie should / shouldn't have stopped by the IT office.
3. If Ellie had not stayed in the IT office so long, her fish would / wouldn't have burned.
4. Ellie's coworkers should / shouldn't have turned the microwave off.
5. If Claire had been Ellie's coworker, she would / wouldn't have been so upset.

READING

1 Read the text. Choose (✓) the true sentences.

1. ✓ Diego wasn't sure if he should have paid for his new coworker's lunch.
2. ☐ Kim thought the other woman shouldn't have criticized the painting.
3. ✓ Ben was irritated that his roommate drank his coffee without asking.

MIND YOUR MANNERS

These people were in uncomfortable situations. What should they have done?

DIEGO went to lunch with a new coworker because he wanted to make her feel welcome. Later when the bill came, the coworker looked confused. Diego felt uncomfortable paying for both meals. It wasn't a date, but maybe she didn't have enough money.

KIM saw a painting in an art gallery. She said, "That is terrible!" The woman next to her was shocked and said, "That's my painting. You're so rude!" Kim wanted to take back her criticism, but it would have been dishonest.

BEN'S roommate, Dean, often drank Ben's coffee without asking. When Ben complained, Dean said he would buy more. But Dean's replacement coffee tasted bad. Ben yelled at Dean, "You're inconsiderate!" Dean was so hurt that he gave the landlord his notice, and he moved out the next month.

2 Read the text again. Choose the correct answer.

1. Diego was angry / uncomfortable about paying for both meals.
2. Kim's comment hurt / amused the woman next to her in the art gallery.
3. Dean didn't buy / bought some more coffee.

3 Find the underlined words in the text. Match them with their meanings.

1. criticism	b	a. something that takes the place of something else
2. replacement	a	b. an opinion that is usually negative
3. notice	c	c. a written note stating when something will end

4 What do you think? What should they have done? Choose (✓) an answer.

1. Diego should have ...
   - ✓ paid for both meals.
   - ☐ paid for his meal only.
2. Kim should have ...
   - ☐ left the gallery.
   - ✓ said she was sorry.
3. Ben should have ...
   - ✓ been more sympathetic.
   - ☐ bought more of his own coffee.